Course Descriptions for Flex Schedule Children's Dance Camp

A Chorus Line One of the biggest dance shows of all time, which is definitely singularly sensational. This musical is sure to teach your child dance appreciation. The show is extremely complex and shows the journey that performers undergo in their careers. Students will study Broadway jazz technique and learn how to incorporate their knowledge into three pieces of choreography from this classic production. They will also study the musicals history and impact. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

Broadway Dance Sampler Calling all Broadway enthusiasts! If your child loves musical theatre and wants to gain more dance experience, this is the camp for them! Students will learn the basics of Broadway jazz technique, the history of musical theatre dance and gain exposure to the many styles of dance that are incorporated into musicals. They will learn three pieces of choreography from contrasting musicals. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

Broadway Experience (full day) The next stop is Broadway and you don't want to miss it! This camp will show children that musical theatre takes commitment, drive and focus, while teaching them how fun it can be to put together a production. The students will learn technique in three styles, ballet, modern and jazz. The second half of the day will be dedicated to putting together a musical showcase. This is an extension of the Broadway Dance Sampler Camp, they will be given the chance to go further into the discovery of their craft. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

Contemporary Improvisation/Composition Workshop: This camp is designed for intermediate to advanced dancers who want to develop their skills as choreographers. This course will help broaden the dancer's horizons and focus on how they are able to move freely in order to create phrases. These phrases will come together to create a final piece. They will have a series of assignments and composition exercises that will challenge them to work from different perspectives. They will take each assignment to build a final piece with music chose by them, to show the final day of camp. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

Disney Musical Showcase Does your child sing along to every Disney song known to man? This camp will take them on a journey through all of the Disney classics, turned Broadway Musicals. The instructor will focus on three different Disney musicals, Frozen, Lion King and Aladdin. Students will learn dance basics and learn how to incorporate those basic skills into choreography and performance. Students will learn multiple dance excerpts from the shows. They will also study all of the musicals impact and history. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

The Greatest Showman Come Alive and join the latest craze in modern day movie musicals. The Greatest Showman is a breakout movie that has inspired a lot of children to become performers. Students will learn jazz technique and learn how to incorporate those basic skills into three pieces of choreography from the film. They will leave this camp inspired by dance and performance. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

Hairspray You will definitely not be able to stop their dancing feet after a day at camp! This timeless musical, with amazing history will leave your child wanting more. Students will learn Broadway jazz technique and learn how to incorporate those basic skills into three pieces of choreography from this catchy and upbeat show. They will also gain confidence in learning how to perform. Studying the musicals history and impact will also be critical to their understanding and approach. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

Hamilton Do not sit around and Wait For It, much like Aaron Burr! Hamilton has become one of the biggest successes in musical history for a reason, it appeals to an incredibly large demographic. Children, teens and adults have been captivated by its originality and history. Students will learn basic Broadway jazz and hip hop technique and learn how to incorporate those basic skills into choreography and performance. They will also study the musicals history and impact. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

Hip Hop This is a camp designed for the dancer who wants to let loose, build skills and incorporate more rhythm into their technique. Students will get a background in hip hop and jazz fusion. They will learn a variety of styles in Hip Hop, including three contrasting pieces of choreography and how to transform the movement through each of the unique styles. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

Junior Dance Boot Camp Summer can be a time for rest and relaxation, but once September is approaching, it's time to get back to work. This is the perfect camp for the younger dancer, looking to strengthen and prepare themselves for the year ahead. Students will take various classes each day, including ballet, modern and jazz. This camp is intended to focus the dancer on their technique and placement. Students will not be working on choreography, but rather on preparation to get them focused on their objectives and goals as dancers.

Junior Dance Experience A full day camp designed for younger dancers wanting the chance to build and expand their technique. During the session, students will gain exposure to various styles of dance, such as, ballet, modern and jazz. For students, this is a perfect way to work on their ballet training and become more well-rounded dancers. In the first half of the day, students will have the opportunity to receive hour long instruction in each style. They will then be challenged to take their acquired knowledge from classes and incorporate each technique into choreography in the afternoons. This is a perfect camp for students who want to gain a sense of how a summer intensive program works. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

MINI Hip Hoppers Camp No standing, only DANCING! This camp is perfect for children who love to dance and move with style. Students will learn hip hop and jazz fusion techniques for the first half and put those moves into choreography in a couple of contrasting pieces. They will also be given the opportunity to learn some basic breakdancing, which will come in handy for their freestyle sections! There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.

Musical Theatre Dance Workshop Do not throw away your shot to be a part of this camp! Campers will work hard to fine tune their understanding of musical theatre dance and acquire the ability to adapt to the different styles of dance within musicals. They will learn original choreography from some of the biggest shows of all time, as well as new exciting work created by the instructor. There will be a showing the final day of camp, in which you are invited to come and see their hard work and progress.
